Course Assignments, Student Evaluation, and Grading Policies

Exam (MC & Short Essay)  40%
Quizzes/Participation  10%
Final Project (5-7 page paper)  50%

Class Attendance/Participation. Students are required to be present and on time for class. Although no plans have been made to conduct a daily roll call, there will be two unannounced quizzes given in class. The quizzes will be open-book and open-note and relatively short (just two or three questions). No make-up opportunities will be offered; together the two quizzes constitute 10% of the marks for this course.

Missed Exams and Late Assignments. Because the course takes place over a truncated (and intense) period, there will be no time for opportunities to make-up missed assignments or exams. Late assignments will not be tolerated. Although the tentative reading schedule (listed above) indicates exam and assignment due dates, please note that these are subject to revision as the need arises. It is each student's personal responsibility to attend class for announcements of any schedule changes.

No Grade Negotiation. There will be no opportunities for "extra credit" to improve grades that have already been earned. Bargaining for grades (e.g. "I need a B because....") will not be tolerated. The only way to achieve the minimum grade that you require is to attend class regularly, participate often, study hard, and successfully complete all assignments.

Grading Scale

A (80% - 100%)  B (68% - 79%)  C (55% - 67%)  D (50% - 54%)  F (< 50%)

Academic Integrity and Honesty

Every student should be aware of the university's policy on academic honesty. This course will be conducted in accord with this policy. The policy is available at: www.students.ubc.ca/calendar/index.cfm?tree=3,286,0,0

Miscellany

Laptop computers may be used for course related purposes only (e.g., no web-surfing or checking email). All other electronic devices (e.g., cell phones, pda's, etc.) should be turned off prior to class.
